

Catholic Parish of Wellington South

In the spirit of Suzanne Aubert

We are a community of joyful disciples growing together and sharing Christ's message

Ko tātou tetahi hāpori o ngā ākonga harikoo, e whakatupu ngātahi ana, e ruia ana te karere o Hēhu Karaiti

Sunday November 19

33rd Sunday Ord Time

God wants everyone to take a risk to share with others the gifts he has given to them — their life, talents and His love. The pope used the parable of the talents to explain how God entrusts people with his greatest treasures: "our own lives, the lives of others" and a number of different gifts and talents. On the day of judgement God will not ask us if we jealously preserved our life and faith, but instead whether we stepped forward and took risks.

Gospel Reflection

For all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but for those who are unproductive, even what they have will be taken away." Profits$$$Profits$$$ are the common words today.

Today's gospel is all about profits when the master left talents to three servants. He gave five to one, two to another and one to the third one. He was expecting good returns for what he gave them. The first one, as well as the second invested theirs and doubled the talents. They were rewarded with more responsibilities but joined their master with joy. However the third one who was anxious and scared buried his talent without returns. Accordingly as the master returned, he praised those servants that were profitable and got rid of the one without returns.

As we reflect on today's Gospel for the World Day of the Poor, we can think about the variety of talents and gifts we have been given to share and use to help others. In this way we are loving both God and our neighbour and deepening our own spirituality. Jesus knows which gifts to entrust to us and we need to trust HIS wisdom. You may ask yourself, what are my talents that I can use for God's glory and to help others? We have received from God many gifts and talents, e.g. various abilities, family connections, social positions and educational opportunities and many more. We are called and challenged to use them. So do we use them in the service of others, especially the poor? The woman described in the First Reading "holds out her hand to the poor and opens her arms to the needy" Do these words describe us? Are we ready for the responsibilities? Or are we so afraid and anxious that we hide our talents.

It is a privilege to be entrusted with gifts and talents, resources and opportunities but we need to use them. Simple acts of kindness in our neighbourhood and community can go a long way to help others. Equally being active in our Church and doing our part to build a strong community of faith by being involved in practical ways is very rewarding indeed. In our own way, we are sharing our talents and gifts. Lord, help us to use our talents in your service. Amen

Join us in making a difference -- Sunday, 19 November marks the 7th annual World Day of the Poor, a day to consider how we all can stand in solidarity with those in need. Poverty is a pressing global issue, and this day calls us to action. Pope Francis has instructed us this year, "Do not turn your face away from those who are poor" (Tob 4:7). He calls us to make a positive change in the world. Get Involved! Together, we can create a more just and compassionate world. Find out more about World Day of the Poor on the Caritas Website:

caritas.org.nz or Caritas Facebook page: facebook.com/caritasaotearoa. Read the articles in Welcom or join in a conversation in our parish to understand what it means to encounter the poor and then to come up with actions for us as a parish to work on over the next year.

Congratulations to the Sisters of St Peter Claver on raising over $4,000 with their Pot Luck dinner at St Anne's Hall last week. Thank you to all the people who helped to make this such a special occasion.
