Sunday 30 November 2025

1st Sunday of Advent

“We share the same faith in the one and only God, the Father of all people; we confess together the one Lord and true Son of God, Jesus Christ, and the one Holy Spirit, who inspires us and impels us towards full unity and the common witness to the Gospel. Truly, what unites us is much greater than what divides us! In a world that is divided and torn apart by many conflicts, the one universal Christian community can be a sign of peace and an instrument of reconciliation, playing a decisive role in the global commitment to peace.’

Pope Leo XIV, Apostolic Letter on the 1700th anniversary of the Council of Nicaea, 2025. November 2025

From Fr Biju

We are entering into a new liturgical year, with the season of Advent. It is an opportunity for us to “go to the house of the Lord” and “seek good things”. It is the perfect time to reignite our faith and start anew. Today’s first reading invites us to journey with the Lord, so that “He may teach us his ways and that we may walk in his paths”.

There are two key phrases that should become the foundation for our Advent journey to Christmas: “Wake up” and “Be alert”. We need to wake up from the darkness of our lives in order to walk in the light of the Lord. We live in darkness when we keep God away from our lives by our sins. Oftentimes, we pretend that we have no sin and there is nothing wrong with us. It is others who need renewal. The reality is that all of us have sinned and have fallen short of the glory of God. We need to make a conscious and deliberate decision to throw off the works of darkness and put on the armour of light. Let us be sustained by our continuous effort to stay alert to the situations around us, so that we do not fall back into the works of darkness. We need to allow God to mould us and shape us, and thus allow him to teach us his ways.

Some of the ways in which we can stay alert to God working within us are spending a little more time in personal prayer, receiving the sacrament of reconciliation, and our willingness to forgive others. These will help us prepare to welcome into our hearts Jesus, the God-with-us. When we do this, we prepare ourselves to experience the joy of Christmas.

Let us challenge ourselves each day to open our hearts to the Lord. For the next 24 days, let us journey with hope and faith, and make room in our hearts for the birth of Jesus. As we light the candles of this Advent wreath each week, may the light of Christ become stronger in our lives. May we grow stronger in our commitment to Christ and to his people.

Have a blessed season of Advent.
